About Us

The Jacksonville Friends of the Library is a non-profit, volunteer run organization that provides volunteer service, advocacy, and funding in support of the Onslow County Public Library.

The Jacksonville Friends of the Library provides valuable support by funding:

- Programs, special performances, prizes and events for adults, families, teens, and youth.
- New materials for OCPL's digital library collection of ebooks and audiobooks.
- Assistance with the purchase of books furniture, equipment, snacks, supplies, and other necessities.

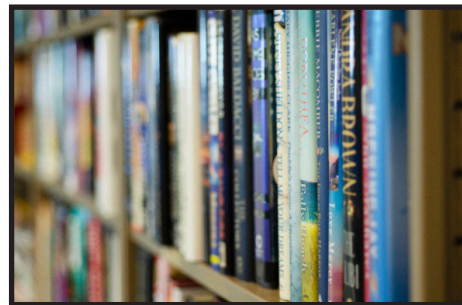

Our Friends help support the library's mission by providing matching grant funds. Grants such as the Library Services and Technology Act through the State Library of North Carolina. The North Carolina Humanities Council and the NC Arts Council grants to provide cultural and artistic performances of song, dance, poetry, puppetry, and more.

Used Book Sales

The Friends annually host 2 used book sales. These sales feature previously loved items, and typically are Thursday to Saturday during the second full week of February and September. Members receive early access to the book sales, as well as one free book per sale.

You can also shop for books anytime the library is open. Check out the "Book Store" located in the main lobby area behind the computers.

The Friends are grateful for donations of your gently used books, DVDs and audiobooks!
