Online Government Surplus Auctions

Onslow County Hosts Several Real Estate Auctions Online

May 10, 2017 (Jacksonville, NC) – Onslow County, NC is currently conducting multiple land auctions on the online government surplus auction website GovDeals.com.

There are currently 22 properties for auction, with starting bids ranging from $100 to more than $50,000. This means there is a property for every budget on GovDeals.com right now.

All auctions are for real property on tax foreclosed properties, and are open for bidding until Friday, May 19, 2017.

Onslow County, which has been posting and selling items on the auction site since 2005, has sold items in many different categories including, but not limited to: computers, automobiles, and heavy equipment. To date, Onslow County has recouped over $800,000 for their county in surplus sales.

Onslow County will continue to use GovDeals to sell their surplus real property and personal property as it becomes available.

Anyone who wishes to bid on auctions on GovDeals.com must be a registered bidder. New Bidders can complete their free registration at www.govdeals.com/Register.
