

Guide for Mitigating Damage to Family Treasures

These links contain helpful contacts and tips for mitigating damage from flooding to family heirlooms such as textiles, photographs, documents, and more.

North Carolina State Historic Preservation Office – SHPO

<http://www.hpo.ncdcr.gov/>

Disaster Recovery

<http://www.hpo.ncdcr.gov/disaster.htm>

American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works – AIC

<http://www.conservation-us.org/home>

Textiles:

<http://www.conservation-us.org/resources/disaster-response-recovery/guides-and-information/salvaging-water-damaged-textiles#.W7TJX3tKiUk>

Photographs:

<http://www.conservation-us.org/resources/disaster-response-recovery/guides-and-information/saving-photographs#.W7TJcHtKiUk>

National Center for Preservation Technology and Training – NCPTT

<https://www.ncptt.nps.gov/>

Removing mold from paper:

<https://www.ncptt.nps.gov/blog/how-to-take-mold-off-papers-and-objects/>

National Parks Service Conserve-o-grams – NPS

https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/cons\_toc.html

Salvage of Water-Damaged Collections: Salvage at a Glance:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-03.pdf>

Paper based collections:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-04.pdf>

Non-paper based archival collections:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-05.pdf>

Object collections:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-06.pdf>

Natural history collections:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-07.pdf>

Textiles:

<https://www.nps.gov/museum/publications/consveogram/21-08.pdf>